

Resources Provided by The Brady Colbert Foundation

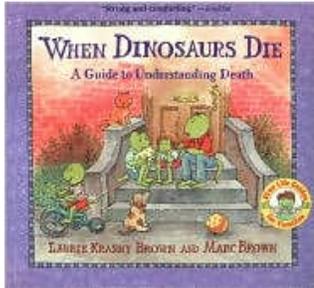

The following resources provided by The Brady Colbert Foundation were items used by the Colbert family to help with the transitions and grieving process. We hope to see this list grow as we extend our network to others who have found useful and meaningful resources.

Books for Parents and Siblings

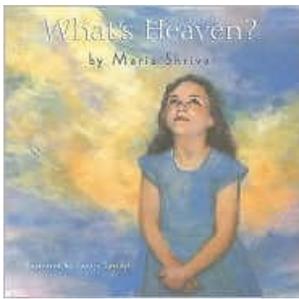

Book	Synopsis from Barnes and Noble
 The cover features a red heart with a face and the title '35 Ways to Help a Grieving Child' at the top. The Brady Center logo is at the bottom.	If you know a child who has experienced the death of a parent, caregiver, sibling, grandparent or friend, you may have wondered how to support them. This guidebook presents simple and practical suggestions drawn from the experiences of thousands of grieving children and teens about what helps and what doesn't. Learn what to expect from grieving children at different ages, how to provide safe outlets for children to express their thoughts and feelings, and how to support them during the memorial service, holidays and anniversaries.
 The cover shows a child sitting on a large, colorful, textured object. The title 'Sad Isn't Bad' is at the top.	Loaded with positive, life-affirming advice for coping with loss as a child, this guide tells children what they need to know after a loss--that the world is still safe; life is good; and hurting hearts do mend. Written by a school counselor, this book helps comfort children facing of the worst and hardest kind of reality. Full color.
 The cover is green and features a blue dragonfly illustration. The title 'Water Bugs & Dragonflies' is at the top.	Waterbugs and Dragonflies is a graceful fable written by Doris Stickney who sought a meaningful way to explain to neighborhood children the death of a five-year-old friend. The small book is beautifully illustrated by artist Gloria Ortiz Hernandez.
 The cover shows a red house with a yellow sun. The title 'Help Me Say Goodbye' is at the top.	An art therapy and activity book for children coping with death. Sensitive exercises address all the questions children may have during this emotional and troubling crisis. Children are encouraged to express in pictures what they are often incapable of expressing in words.

Tear Soup is the story of Grandy, who has just suffered a big loss in her life. She blends emotions and memories into Tear Soup as a way to work thru the healing and grieving process

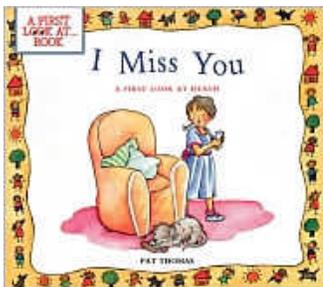

Explains in simple language the feelings people may have regarding the death of a loved one and the ways to honor the memory of someone who has died.

This treasure of a book, for people of all faiths, is a starting point for parents who must talk about the difficult topic of death with their children.

What should parents say when a loved one dies? Heaven is a difficult subject that always comes up at tough times, and Maria Shriver has written a very special book precisely for these stressful moments. What's Heaven? is the story of Kate, a little girl whose great-grandma has just died. She seeks answers, and her mother helps her learn about Heaven. The many questions in this book are real, coming from Shriver's own children, nieces, and nephews when her grandmother Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy passed away. With 900,000 copies of the book now in print, the loving, confident, and ultimately uplifting answers Shriver provides are helping readers' families come together, feel closer to one another, and experience peace during the times when they need it most.

When a close friend or family member dies, it can be difficult for children to express their feelings. This book helps boys and girls understand that death is a natural complement to life, and that grief and a sense of loss are normal feelings for them to have following a loved one's death. Titles in this sensitively presented series explore the dynamics of various relationships experienced by children of preschool through early school age. Kids are encouraged to understand personal feelings and social problems as a first step in dealing with them. Written by psychotherapist and counselor Pat Thomas, these books promote positive interaction among children, parents, and teachers. The story lines are simple and direct-easily accessible to younger children. There are full-color illustrations on every page.

Journals for Mothers and Fathers

Journals are provided in pink or blue with the Brady Colbert Foundation symbol embossed on the front cover.

Memory Celebration Packages

Package #1

© Creative Memories

A Creative Memories 11 x 14 inch durable matte leather cover album; holds 160 photos or journaling boxes. Picfolio Milestones kit included with this package. (See kits below.)

Package #2

© Creative Memories

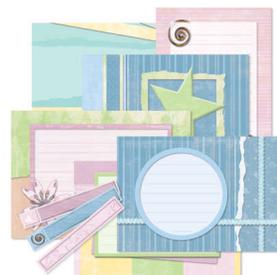

A Creative Memories 6 x 7 inch matte, leather-look cover; holds 24 photos or journaling boxes. Picfolio Milestones kit included with this package. (See kits below.)

Picfolio Milestones Kits

© Creative Memories

Playful Kit

© Creative Memories

Pink & Blue Kit